INDEX, KUNGSBRO STRAND 19, 112 26 STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN INDEXFOUNDATION.SE

In 2015, Index celebrates its 40th anniversary!

To celebrate 40 successful years as one of the most progressive arts organisations in Sweden, Index organises an international benefit auction on 20 May at Café Opera in Stockholm.

Artists that have exhibited in the past at Index and friends of the organisation are contributing with works for sale. The auction is an important signal for the future of Index that underlines the crucial role of the organisation in Sweden. The sale includes works by some of the most important contemporary artists today. Spanning more than 30 years, the list includes among others Lina Selander, Runo Lagomarsino and Meriç Algün Ringborg, who represent Sweden at this year's Venice Biennial. International artists such as Elmgreen/Dragset, Olafur Eliasson, Judith Hopf and Tobias Madison, and younger Swedish artists, such as Ilja Karilampi, Anna Uddenberg and Jim Thorell have contributed works.

In changing conditions for the arts, this event aims to highlight the importance of institutions such as Index within the wider cultural ecology. Located in the city centre, Index is a space for contemporary art, open and free for everyone, inviting to experience and discuss creative thinking. With an expansive programme of pedagogical events, such as the new initiative "Schools in Residence", Index offers engaging encounters with art.

About Index

Index - The Swedish Contemporary Art Foundation is based in the centre of Stockholm and offers an ambitious program of exhibitions, events and learning activities for a wide range of audiences. As one of the longest-standing spaces for contemporary art in Scandinavia, Index has an excellent reputation for the consistency of its work over the years both nationally and internationally, and serves as an important platform and source of inspiration for cultural professionals in Stockholm. The gallery is based in a unique situation in a residential building from the 1930s which is both very centrally located and specifically linked to the neighbourhood and its residents.
